HUNDREDS OF POOR PEOPLE SEEN NEAR POSH HARROGATE

THEY APPEAR TO HAVE COME FROM JARROW, CLAIMED WELL-TO-DO ONLOOKER

HARROGATE - THE group of poor people from Jarrow who five days ago set off on what appeared to be an autumn stroll have reached Harrogate, 80-miles south of their set-off point.

Along the way they have been collecting signatures prompting one local North Yorkshire dignitary to enquire as to whether it was some kind of sponsored walk.

In Harrogate, a well to do spa town, the sudden influx of "below stairs" types has started a mass panic among inhabitants.

The last time a poor person was seen in this affluent borough was in 1903 when a man from Darlington described as "backward" entered "as a dare" and was promptly shot.

At Betty's Tea Room, a popular meeting place for ladies who lunch, manager Felicity Twee-Smythe said: "What sort of food do these types eat?"

"We serve finger cakes and afternoon tea. Will they put their dirty hands on my net curtains?"

"Oh, it's too much," she then swooned.

The local constabulary have been ordered to kill with immediate effect any poor person who soils the pavements of Harrogate with their muddy clogs.

Mayor Bernard Tomkinson said: "I believe the government are introducing a Public Order Act that will ban poor people from marching in this way.

"Unfortunately the Act only covers London. I have asked the Home Secretary Sir John Simon if he'll extend the powers of the Act to include London and Harrogate."

Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin announced he was monitoring the situation closely and said: "One must not be alarmed by poor people or their appearance.

"I suspect these people from Jarrow, of which there are 200, come from the same family because the lower classes do breed very quickly.

"If one approaches I suggest you back off slowly and not make any sudden movements.

"They have probably gone for a Sunday walk and got lost. There is no need to panic."

Miner wins Moseley's blackest black shirt competition

DARLINGTON - PIT Worker James Moorcart yesterday expressed humble gratitude to British Fascist leader Sir Oswald Moseley after winning first prize in the inaugural Blackest Black Shirt Competition.

Mr Moorcart, who has worked down the mines since the age of three, doffed his cap to Mr Moseley upon hearing the result before retiring to his colliery to begin his twenty-one hour shift.

Mr Moseley told us: "It were a grand shirt. Even the white bits were black. It were t'blackest shirt I've seen in all me born days, 'appen!"

German troops in Rhineland 'Just on holiday' says Goebbels

COLOGNE: HUNDREDS of German troops marching into the Rhineland are just there "on holiday" the Propoganda Ministry in Berlin reported last night.

Concerns were raised in several European capitals that the march of the Wehrmacht into the demilitarised zone could be the precursor to a European catastrophe of unrivalled proportions.

But, speaking in Berlin, German Propoganda Minister Herr Joseph Goebbels said: "These peace-loving fellows are just there on a multi-centre city break. "On their visit they intend to see the ancient cathedral cities of Aachen and Cologne and take in the sights. "We would be horrified if anyone thought this was the start of a policy of German expansionism leading to the absorption of the Sudeten Germans, anchluss with Austria, the rape of Czechoslovakia and ultimately disastrous war leaving Europe in smouldering ruins."

The troops were mounted on tanks and armoured vehicles pulling field artillery "just in case they encountered troublesome local youths" reassured Dr Goebbels.

HITLER PROMISES WARM WELCOME FOR ALL AT BERLIN OLYMPICS Except Jews, Blacks, Slavs, Gypsies, etc, obviously

BERLIN: GERMAN dictator Herr Adolf Hitler has promised a "warm Nazi welcome" for all competitors in the forthcoming Olympic Games.

Speaking at the site of the Olympic Stadium, Herr Hitler said that "every single one" of the 3,963 athletes from 49 nations would be made to feel at home in Berlin.

At this point the Fuhrer was taken aside for several seconds by Reichsmarschall Herrman Goering.

Returning to the podium, Herr Hitler coughed and added: "Of course when I say 'everyone', I don't mean Jews, obviously. We may be a bit stand-offish with them.

"Oh, and of course Negroes. We're not exactly going to welcome them as long-lost brothers, are we?"

"And if you think we're putting bunting out for the Slavs and the Gypsies, you've got another think coming, buddy.

"As for faggots — forget it!"

STOP PRESS ++ STOP PRESS ORGANISERS of the Paralympic Games for the Handicapped last night expressed reservations at Nazi plans to kill all handicapped persons as part of their "compulsory euthanasia" programme.
